EXTRAORDINARY

CHANGE

THE CAMPAIGN FOR DALHOUSIE

DAL RAISES $280 MILLION TO SUPPORT “EXTRAORDINARY CHANGE”

PATH TO THE CAMPAIGN GOAL

The ambition was, indeed, bold: raising $250 million to help position Dalhousie towards its third century with more strength than ever before. Eighteen months ahead of schedule, Dalhousie has accomplished that goal—and then some.

Bold Ambitions: The Campaign for Dalhousie, the largest fundraising effort in the university's history, concluded in May, and raised a total of $280 million. "This is a tremendous achievement that surpassed what was an incredibly ambitious goal," said then-President Tom Traves in announcing the campaign total, comprised of 20,000 donations. The funds will support new academic programming, research, student experience and campus infrastructure.

Support came from across Canada and beyond: 52 per cent of donors were from Atlantic Canada, with 43 per cent from the rest of Canada and 5 per cent were international. Dalhousie received 56 gifts in excess of $1 million, with 6 gifts of $10 million or more.

"Without a doubt, the spirit of philanthropy is alive and well at Dalhousie and a solid foundation has been established for the future," said Floyd Dykeman, vice-president external, in thanking his team within External Relations who managed the campaign, as well as the more than 200 volunteers across the country.

"We get back far more than we give," said Jody Forsyth, co-founder of Annapolis Capital Limited in Calgary, campaign chair for Western Canada and a donor. "When you hear you've changed someone's life, that's a very powerful thing. The joy and fulfillment that comes from being able to do that is priceless, and I can't imagine better value for my dollar than that."

—Ryan McNutt

THE GENEROSITY OF MANY

"With the help of many, we're building a better, stronger Dalhousie and creating opportunities for our students that they will take with them as they make their mark on the world. We are thankful for the commitment of our donors." Floyd Dykeman, Vice-President, External
